Our Values

We Believe in preserving the Sanctity of Human Life. All human life is created by God and in the image of God. Our goal is that all in Oscoda County will value life from the point of conception and that each child will have a nurturing family.

We believe in depending on the Power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We are committed to knowing, living and presenting the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We seek His guidance in leadership and His provision of resources so that His life-changing work will be done.

We believe in promoting the Importance of a Healthy Family. We are striving to help educate parents to provide a family setting with a Mom and a Dad who love, nurture and care for their children as they grow. We seek to be a center that teaches parenting skills to Moms and Dads.

We believe in involving the Body of Christ across denominations. We are a ministry that works with and through local churches. We seek to be an avenue that the churches can use to show the Love of Christ to our community. Our goal is to encourage all believers to pray and become involved in the fight against abortion and the process of loving and caring for families in need.

We believe in Helping those in need. We believe in serving those in need as we would serve Jesus himself. We do all we can to meet the physical, emotional, relational and spiritual needs of those who come to us.

We believe in encouraging commitment to Sexual Integrity. We believe that God created sex as an intimate expression of love between husband and wife. We seek to educate and encourage abstinence before marriage and fidelity within marriage.

We believe in developing caring, trusting Relationships with Clients and Partners. Our priority is to show Clients respectful compassion with confidentiality. We seek to build bonds of friendship with Partners that build up the ministry of His Love and their individual lives, with compassion and confidentiality, respectful - unto Jesus; believing that God will provide.
